THE BOAT

Purpose-built for Komodo diving

Komodo Sea Dragon is a luxurious 35-metre (114-foot) wooden liveaboard sailing the waters of Komodo National Park from Labuan Bajo. It is one of the most distinctive liveaboards in Indonesia.

With six cabins for 12 guests, or up to 16 using the sofa beds in the Double Cabins, and a dedicated dive boat, she offers an intimate diving experience with a 4:1 diver-to-guide ratio, at iconic sites such as Batu Bolong, Castle Rock, Crystal Rock and Manta Alley. Itineraries include guided treks to see the Komodo dragons on Komodo and Rinca, and viewpoints such as Padar Island.

THE KOMODO SEA DRAGON DIFFERENCE

A dedicated dive boat

Komodo Sea Dragon dives from her own detached dive boat. The compressors, tanks and all the diving equipment are kept on the dive boat, not on the liveaboard, so the main vessel stays quiet, dry and uncluttered: a place to rest between dives.

- Compressors and tank filling on the dive boat, away from the cabins
- Your gear is set up on the dive boat and stays there for the trip
- The dive boat carries the group to each site and back
- Four divers per guide, and a Nautilus Lifeline GPS for every diver
- A tender as well, for excursions ashore

DIVING

Small groups in the park

- One to four guided dives a day, four divers per guide
- Tanks, weights and dive guide included
- Iconic sites such as Batu Bolong, Castle Rock, Crystal Rock and Manta Alley
- Some sites have strong currents, but many suit Open Water divers; groups are matched to experience
